

NATIONAL CALL FOR SUBMISSIONS 2013/14

Solstice Arts Centre would like to invite artists, curators, art collectives, galleries to submit for inclusion in our Visual Arts programme 2013/14. While submissions are welcome from individual artists, Solstice, as a public space, is particularly interested in group participation/ideas that connect or consider our space (scope, nature) and the viewer/audience in diverse ways.

Solstice will provide at a minimum an artist/materials fee as standard. However further investment (financial or funding application support) will be considered on the scope and nature of the proposal.

Interested participants are asked to submit:

- A detailed proposal including a financial estimate where possible
- CV's
- Inclusion of examples of work. While soft copies are preferable we will also accept hard copies. If you wish for your hard copies to be returned, please enclose a stamped envelope. Each image submitted must be no larger than a 1MB file.

First round submissions deadline is Friday May 18th 2012.

Solstice Gallery: Solstice visual space consists of three large interlinking galleries within the highest level of the building as well as a significant gallery wall in the foyer of the building. Main gallery plans can be downloaded for viewing at <http://www.solsticeartscentre.com/news/index.php>

Address soft copies to info@solsticeartscentre.ie. Alternatively hard copies can be addressed to: "Call for submissions", Solstice Arts Centre, Railway Street, Navan, Co. Meath, Ireland. For further information or enquiries please contact: Sarah Standing t. +353 46 9092300 e. sarah@solsticeartscentre.ie

